Infinite Love and Gratitude

“Every symptom is a gift in strange wrapping paper”
~ Dr. Darren Weissman (Developer of the LifeLine Technique)

The LifeLine Technique™ is both an ancient and advanced complete system of transformation and wholeness. It's a philosophy, science, and quantum technology that bridges gaps between the conscious and subconscious mind.

At the root of every symptom, stress and disease is a subconscious emotional pattern of reaction. When activated this pattern of reaction will cause both behavioral and biological stressors.

The cornerstone of the LifeLine Technique is our view of symptoms, stress and disease. Rather than something being wrong with a person; symptoms, stress and disease are the language your body and life use to awaken you to your authentic power of transformation and create change

The LifeLine Technique™ enables a person to activate their subconscious mind and thus have a direct impact on genetic expressions affecting the health of your body and the relationships in your life.

We focus on the Five Basics for Optimal Health-the quantity, quality, frequency of water, food, rest, exercise and owning your power.
